

Think Startups
Sponsorship
May 2013

Our events a little different

Voted #1 SEO Conference in the UK

We our Sponsors

Sponsoring Think Startups doesn't just get your logo on the website and tickets to the event, you become part of the event..

Here are just some of the things we can offer

tweet wall branding

Your own pick n mix

branded lanyards

Customized after party

named rooms

Tickets for your team

On stage mentions during the day

Attendee bag drops

Brand interaction with our attendee forum

Exclusive conference announcements for your website

Just to be upfront

There are a few things we DONT do for sponsors...

- Sponsor = Speaking (You can apply like everyone else but sponsoring does not guarantee a speaking slot)
- Attendee Email Addresses (We will happily add your message to our newsletter, but we do not supply emails, it's just not cricket)
- Booth Babes (Dom gets a bit jealous of anyone that outshines him in a gold sparkly something)

As much as we need sponsorship

We want a cracking event for all our attendees
